

adaptable

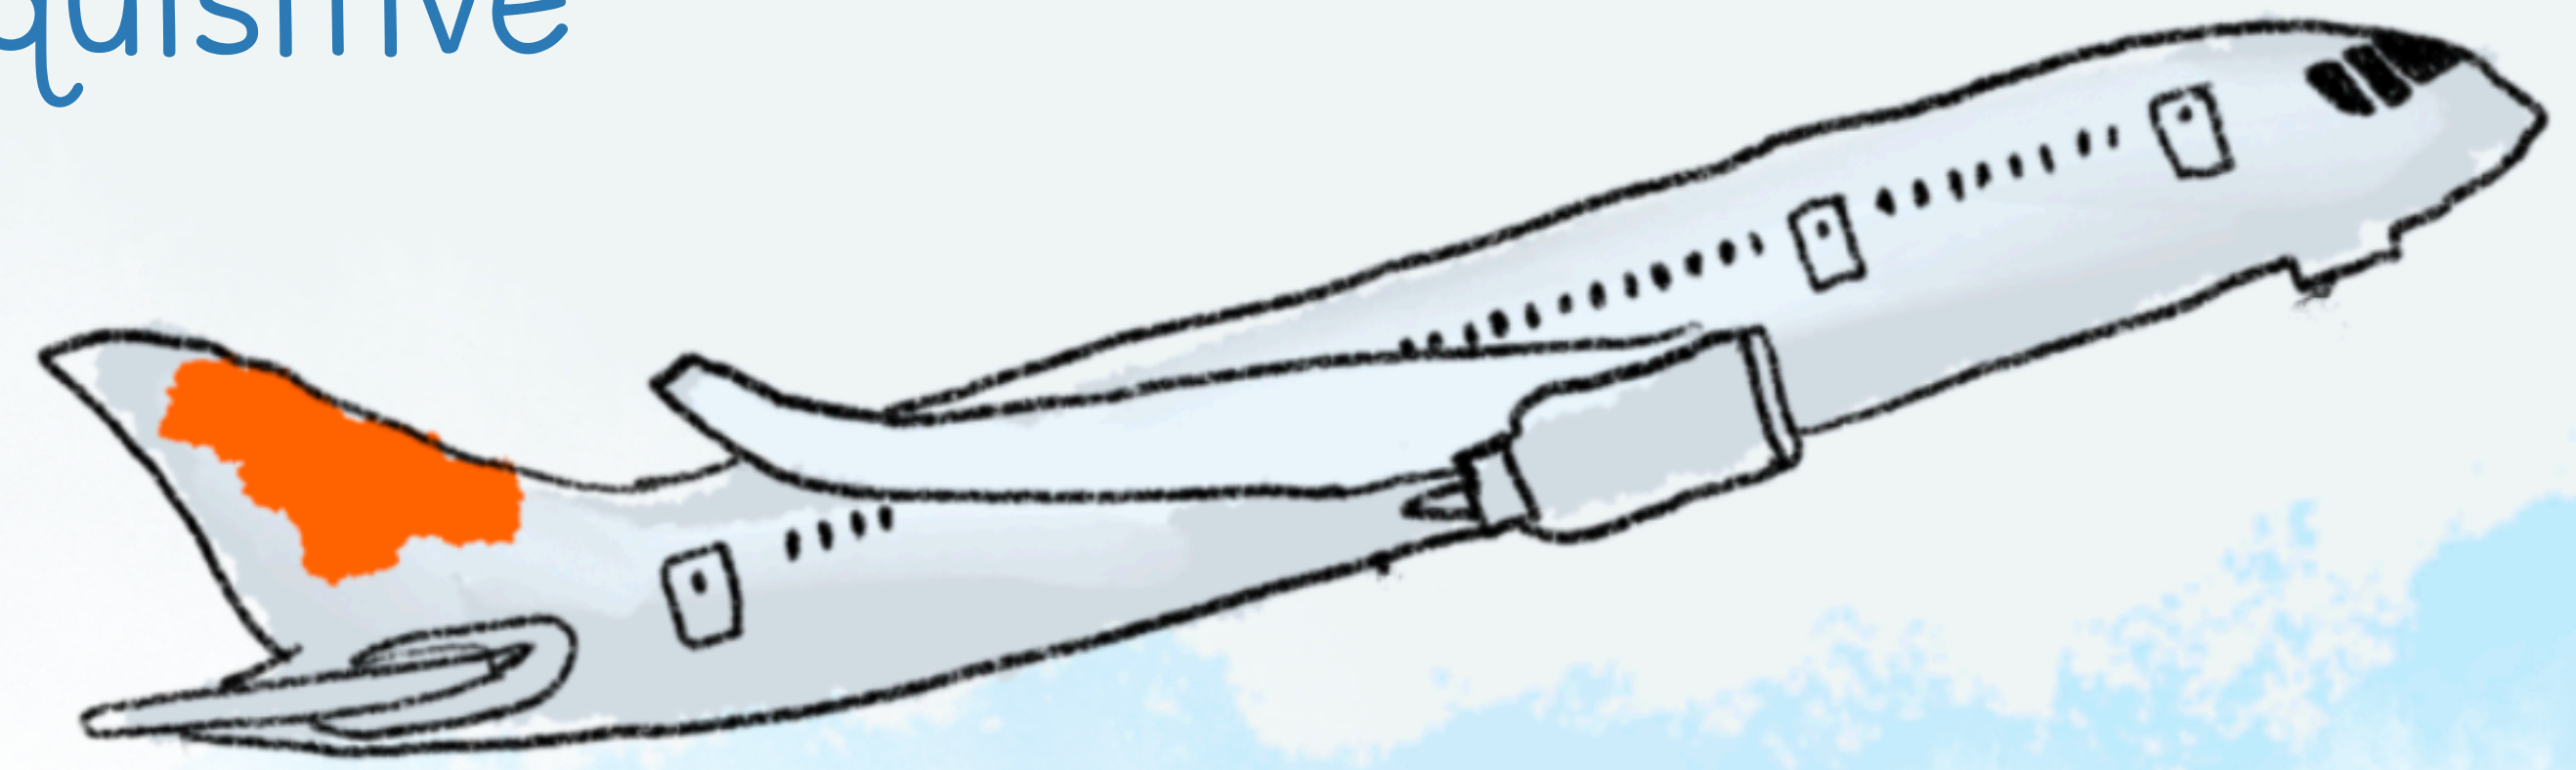

organised

inquisitive

analytical

Unlocking a World of Opportunity

I used to think that only boys could be in the army but careers lessons have helped me realise that anything is possible.

The lessons give me the chance to practice the golden challenges of PSHE.

My careers passport is like a torch that lights up the world.

Innovative, dexterous and decisive are like keys to a successful future. I know what they all mean thanks to careers lessons.