

Lesson 3 Work Year 6 | Activity

Name

Identify the motivation behind each person's career choice.

Scenario	What is the motivation?
1. Natasha is a salesperson in London. Her work is a little boring at times but she likes her team. Natasha loves working in London because it means that she can spend the evenings with her friends having lots of fun.
2. David works as a firefighter. He has been fascinated with fire engines ever since his grandma bought him a toy version on his 5th birthday. He loves the job. David enjoys helping people who are in danger. Only last week, he rescued a young child from a blazing fire. It was nice to see the child's parents so happy about the rescue. It is also nice to work with people who care about the community.
3. Sara works in an amazing office, which has its own gym and restaurant. Sara has a boss that is always shouting at her. She also has colleagues who are trying to steal her job but that doesn't matter because Sara is paid a lot of money and is given lots of opportunities to improve her work. Soon she is going to be a millionaire!
4. After ten years working in an office for a company he didn't like, Dan decided that he wanted a calm job that was outside. After three months of research, Dan signed up for a gardener's course. Dan does not earn as much money as he used to but he is far happier at work.
